Special collection this weekend is for the support of Seminarians and Priests. As the Diocese of Austin rapidly continues to grow, we must ensure that we have an ample number of priests to celebrate the sacraments, preach God's word and guide us on our journey with Christ. Thus, to ensure our priests are well-prepared, a man in formation pursues an education in philosophy, theology and pastoral care. Seminarian education and formation in the Diocese of Austin can take up to nine years. We believe that financial impediments should never prevent men from responding to God's call to the priesthood. Most financial support for priests and seminarians is made available from the Catholic Services Appeal and a Seminarian Endowment in the Catholic Foundation, but the needs are far greater than our annual appeal can support. This special collection provides additional support for this very important effort. Please be generous in your support of this most worthy cause.

But alas, on that day in May, Bishop Gallagher exercised an additional prelate's option. He chose the occasion of the Confirmation ceremonies to announce the relocation of the Pastor of the Granger Parish, Father Pridal, to a new assignment in Brenham, thus delegating the parish, once again, to "mission" status to be served by Rev. M. M. Grove of Taylor. (2) Although, Rev. Frantisek Machan was named pastor on September 4, 1895 and remained for two years, the Granger parish found itself yet again a mission served by Rev. F. G. Sebik of West, Texas, until Father Machan's return on 1898. (2)

It was during Rev. Frantisek Machan's tenure as pastor in 1895-96 and again in 1898-1902 that the essence of what this parish would become was established. Possessed of a missionary spirit that equaled that of the congregation's patron saints, Cyril and Methodius, Father Machan was about his Father's business on all fronts. As he nurtured his fledgling flock, he welcomed each new arriving immigrant with missionary zeal. He urged the formation of fraternal organizations to further aid, support and unite the parishioners in their common bonds of Catholicism and their Czech heritage. The first fraternal organizations of many that would follow, the KJT, Katolicka Jednota Texaska (Catholic Union of Texas) was founded on June 15, 1895, and was dedicated to the patronage of St Methodius, numbered Lodge 28. (2)

As the members of KJT 28 gathered that day little did they know what far-reaching effect their actions would have, not only on their parish, but on the future of their Czech heritage and the Catholic Church in the state of Texas and beyond. (2)
