Msgr. John Vanicek died in Seton Medical Center in Austin, Texas, on October 26th, 1962, and was buried at Holy Cross Cemetery in Granger, far from the land of his birth but in the midst of the people he had served selflessly for thirty five years. One can but wonder.....did he come to terms with this destiny or does his spirit still yearn for its body's internment in his native sod? (5)(6)(3)

At any rate, an era was ended. Father Ben remained as administrator until 1963 when Father George Doskocil assumed pastorship with Father Frank Miller assuming the role of assistant Father George Tydlacka replaced Doskocil in 1965 and remained until 1981. During his tenure he was named "Monsignor", served as state chaplain of the KJT and, through the many changes that occurred during that span of time, left his own indelible mark on this congregation. Assistants during Msgr. Tydlacka's time were Fathers Joseph Znotas, Patrick Johnson, Isidore Rozycki, Dan Delaney, Howard Goertz, Richard Teal, Joseph Van Anh Nguyen and John Harledan. In 1981 Rev. Walter Matus was named pastor and remained until 1987 when he was replaced by Msgr. Gideon Stram. In January of 1988, Msgr. Edward Rabroker came to the helm of SS Cyril and Methodius and remains to this day. (5)(6)(3) (Taken from: A Narrative History of the Congregation by Loretta Skrovan Mikulencak, Granger, Texas)
